GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Greatland was driving under punishment when he defeated Ed Tipton in his last race at Newport, but it was under circumstances which raise him in racing estimation. Of his race the Commercial Tribune says:

"Starter Brown dropped the flag to an excellent start. Greatland was slow to get in his stride, and before he was well in motion Ed Tipton and Ned Wickes were a half-dozen lengths to the good. Perkins at once went after the flying leaders, and at the quarter he caught Wickes. Swinging into the stretch Tipton was two lengths in front and traveling fast. Perkins went to the whip, and under its stinging influence, Greatland overhauled Tipton, and at the last eighth was on even terms with him. Both jockeys were whipping hard, but Tipton was not equal to the occasion, and eased up the last two jumps. Greatland won by a head. The colt's efforts under his crushing impost evoked the admiration of all, and he was declared to be the first Blue Eyes that showed an inclination to respond to the lash. Ed Tipton's race was a vast improvement over his last out, and he will be a hard one to beat from now on."

The filly Rush, that won her initial race at Newport, is probably a good one. A Cincinnati newspaper says of her: "Rush, the two-year-old filly by Wadsworth—Reine d'Or, is a handsome trick that will prove a hard one to beat in the future. She is a half sister to Argentina II. Her dam, Reine d'Or, is a full sister to Chaos, the Futurity winner. Wadsworth, the sire of Rush, is by Longfellow, the sire of Argentina II. Rush belongs to that popular young turfman Tom C. McDowell, of Ashland Farm, Lexington. Mr. McDowell has a knack of uncovering uncommonly good ones and winning with them their first out. Spirituelle, a handsome chestnut filly from his barn, won her first start several days ago. Rush was quietly tipped as being better than Spirituelle, and she was installed the favorite by the layers over a big field. Rush justified the good opinion in which she was held by winning in impressive fashion. In Rush Mr. McDowell undoubtedly has one of the best two-year-old fillies uncovered so far this year."

Dollie Regent is once more a member of Dick Rome's stable. A few days ago the daughter of Montana Regent was boosted and taken from Rome by 'Gene Leigh for $900 after she beat Nancy Seitz. Monday she made her first and only start in Leigh's colors, and, carrying a swell commission of Leigh, was beaten and subsequently claimed by Jimmy Carter for $500. Yesterday her original owner, Mr. Rome, offered Carter $600 for her, but the offer was not accepted. Rome finally accepted Carter's proposition, and for $700 again became the owner of the filly. Dollie Regent, directly and indirectly has cost the ex-master of La Belle a lot of money at this meeting. The day she beat Nancy Seitz Mr. Leigh stood to win upward of $5,000 on the Pepper filly, and Monday he was reported to have bet $1,500 on the Montana Regent filly.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

A QUEER DECISION.

The stewards at Aqueduct made a peculiar and unprecedented decision Tuesday in allowing a race over the wrong course to stand. Of this affair the Morning Telegraph says:

"To cap all, at the end, through a blunder that might easily have been avoided, the last race was not run over the course as scheduled on the program. It was at five furlongs, but was run over five and a half furlongs. The mistake was evidently due to the fact that the men in charge of the starting machine got the two starting points mixed and placed the apparatus at the five and a half furlongs instead of at the five furlongs.

"The race was won by Vigenta, an outsider in the betting, and immediately the blunder was known, pretty nearly every other owner represented threatened to enter a protest. The stewards decided that as the horses had actually run the five furlongs the race should stand. The matter does not seem to be definitely covered in the rules, unless it may come under Rule 142, which reads as follows:

"An objection to the distance of a course officially designated must be made before the race. An objection to a horse on the ground of his not having run the proper course, or of the race having been run on a wrong course * * * must be made before the numbers of the horses placed in the race are put up, unless, under special circumstances, the stewards are satisfied that it could not have been made within that time."

"The mistake may have been a costly one to E. Peters, whose mare, Fair Rebel, led into the last furlong, and possibly might have stayed long enough to have won had the race been run over the proper course, five furlongs. Mr. Peters thought he had grounds to protest the purse, though no formal protests were made at the time."

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Eugene Leigh bought Rey del Mar after he had won a selling race at Newport a few days ago; but, learning that his former owner (Rice) was grieving over the loss of his horse, he returned him for $400, being $100 less than Leigh had paid for the old selling plater. At private sale Leigh has bought the three-year-old filly Ten Pins, by Tenny—Austerity, and the three-year-old colt Brown Fonso, by Fonso—Falerna.

Sam Hildreth and Louis H. Ezell will be factors in the Chicago turf campaign. Ezell is here now. Hildreth will bring on most of the horses he has campaigned so successfully at San Francisco, including W. A. Pinkerton's crack, Judge Denny. He will be here in time for the Harlem meeting.

Charles Green, of St. Louis, who now owns the Kentucky Association track at Lexington, Ky., is credited with an intention of dividing the property into town lots. No Kentuckian seems to have the price to buy the track for racing purposes.

Geyser's record in California to date since last November is nine victories and no defeats. He is far and away the best horse in the Corrigan stable.

Burns & Waterhouse will make an all-summer campaign in Chicago with from fifteen to twenty horses and jockeys Thorpe and Woods.

Morinel is one of the shiftiest fillies seen in California for some time. While not much to look at, she is game, fast and consistent.

Grady will be among the Montana Circuit stars, having been entered in five stakes at Butte and Anaconda.

"Curly" Brown has been engaged to do the starting at Detroit, Fort Erie, Montreal and Windsor next summer.

Richard Croker has sailed for England to oversee the operations of his racing stable.

Eugene Leigh has bought Parson, by Paramatta—Sis Himyar, from Major Thomas.

John Kelsey is in Newport working up entries for the Washington Park stakes.

Old-time jockey George Barbee has turned up at Newport with six racehorses.

Ondague has been fired and turned out until next fall.

Winner—B. c. by Gold Finch—Poesy.
Start good. Won cleverly. Gold Fin is a good colt. Tab him for keener action. Brittmart is quite a bit of quality herself. She closed strong. Watch her. Crossmolina ran her race. She is ordinary and honest. Abano is less than second-class. Faversham is improving with each race. He will do best at a route. Is about ready, and closed strong. Distance showed speed, but stopped at the finish. So did Zacatosa.

5380 SECOND RACE—3-4 Mile. Purse $400. 3-year-olds and upward. Allowances.

Winner—B. f. by Saraband—Ixia.
Start good. A sparkling race. Won in a hard drive by three. It was speed from end to end and O'Connell had to stand it all. He was worn down on the end but was the best and not judiciously handled. Tripping is cherry ripe, was lucky and well used. She can go a route. Her closing bid was skillfully made. Sardonian ran a noble race. Was hampered on the stretch turn, too, and needs a strong jockey. Her race today was as good as the winner's. Recreation came strong at the end. But in the early speed she was always outrun. It doesn't say much for her as the early speed was exhaustive. The filly is ready, needs strong riding and will do best over a distance.

Scratched—La Goleta, 95; McFarlane, 106.

5381 THIRD RACE—1 Mile. Purse $400. 4-year-olds and upward. Gentlemen riders.

Winner—B. h. 6, by Apache—Flora.
Start good. Won in a hard drive by the second best horse. Bad riding beat Metairie. Tulare ran his race and was lucky. Form about such races as these is of little account. All the horses suffer severely and outclass the riders, who also have many troubles.

Scratched—Wawona, 157.

5382 FOURTH RACE—Short Course. (130 feet short of 2 miles.) Purse $500. 4-year-olds and upward. Steeplechase Handicap.

Winner—B. g. 7, by Prince of Norfolk—Haidee.
Start good. Won easily. Huntsman ran a good race and played with Climate at the end. Was well ridden and prepared. He was lucky, too. Climate ran a much improved race over the stiff course. He is at concert pitch. Reno was overweighted and quit all over in the final run. Too much use was made of him. It seemed as if Budd was best and could have won when he fell. Was poorly ridden. He is fit. Tab him. Silverado fell because he was not properly held together.

Winner—B. c. by Morello—Elsie S.
Start good. The first three were driving hard. Elsmore just got up in time. He was lucky and well ridden. The colt is in good condition and an acrobat. Luis closed strong and ran his race. He favors a route and is still in sharp form. Watomba was the best, but poorly ridden and cut off at start and as the field spread on the home turn. Frio was so ridden that his race was as good or above the average. Octuruck was unlucky. Tab him for what he can do. He's fit. Lebel did not run to the mark. Was cut off on stretch turn. Formella and Hooker were outclassed. Watch both in their own nooks.

Scratched—Nihau, 101; On Gua Nita, 101; Defiant, 103; Musculado, 103.
